Chief of Base, Bonn	Chief of Station, Germany	Chief, EE	Operational CANTINER Dr. HENCKNER's Visit to Washington	None, FYI Ref: BMA 21333, 2 June 1961
1. The only discussion with Dr. HENCKNER about machines occurred between [] and Dr. HENCKNER during the course of a Harrenabend in [] home. It was not long, but [] says that Dr. HENCKNER's side of the conversation could have been described as lively. In a word, HENCKNER deprecated the entire idea of spending large quantities of cash on expensive machinery and engaging in extensive programs when a simple card file was infinitely simpler and usually more effective. 2. In what context did Dr. HENCKNER bring up the problem? Does he appear to have changed his mind? If he has some question or problem regarding machine processing, we shall be more than happy to attempt to obtain a satisfactory response.
